The Church's Mission: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings

Amos 7:12–15
Psalms 85:9–14
Ephesians 1:3–14
Mark 6:7–13

In commissioning the Apostles in today's Gospel, Jesus gives them, and us, a preview of His Church's mission after the Resurrection.

His instructions to the Twelve echo those of God to the twelve tribes of Israel on the eve of their exodus from Egypt. The Israelites likewise were sent out with no bread and only one set of clothes, wearing sandals and carrying a staff (see Exodus 12:11; Deuteronomy 8:2–4). Like the Israelites, the Apostles are to rely solely on the providence of God and His grace.

Perhaps, also, Mark wants us to see the Apostles' mission, the mission of the Church, as that of leading a new exodus—delivering people from their exile from God and bringing them to the promised land, the kingdom of heaven.

Like Amos in today's First Reading, the Apostles are not "professionals" who earn their bread by prophesying. Like Amos, they are simply men (see Acts 14:15) summoned from their ordinary jobs and sent by God to be shepherds of their brothers and sisters.

Again this week, we hear the theme of rejection: Amos experiences it, and Jesus warns the Apostles that some will not welcome or listen to them. The Church is called not necessarily to be successful but only to be faithful to God's command.

With authority and power given to her by Jesus, the Church proclaims God's peace and salvation to those who believe in Him, as we sing in today's Psalm.

This word of truth, this Gospel of salvation, is addressed to each of us, personally, as Paul proclaims in today's Epistle. In the mystery of God's will, we have been chosen from before the foundation of the world—to be His sons and daughters, to live for the praise of His glory.

Let us, then, give thanks for the Church today, and for the spiritual blessings He has bestowed upon us. Let us resolve to further the Church's mission—to help others hear the call to repentance and welcome Christ into their lives.

Greetings Faithful Parishioners in Christ,

We are off to a good start with me being your new parish priest as of July 1st, 2021. I thank all of you for welcoming me, looking forward to working with me, and getting to know me as your spiritual father. I thank all of our volunteers who helped me unload, unpack, and get acquainted. (I could use more help unpacking!)

I thank my unloading volunteers July 1st for their patience in waiting for me and being willing to unload a large trailer full of "stuff." When I left Eden, Fr. Ken Lulf said I should just hook on to the rectory in Eden and pull it to Gettysburg! The unload volunteers thought I was delayed in arriving, and I thought I was on time. Fr. Jerry had a 5:00 p.m. start time in the bulletin, and I wrote down a 5:30 p.m. start time.

We wish Fr. Jerry Kopel well in his retirement venture in TN and thank him for his 13 years of priesthood ministry in our parishes and his many years of service in the Catholic Diocese of Sioux Falls since his ordination June 10, 1977.

You probably noticed that I changed the name of this column. I would like to be known as your parish priest and not as your pastor. I requested that the diocese assign me as your administrator not as your pastor. My priest friend from India told me this is how they do it. They don't use the term "pastor" because it has been co-opted by others and has lost its meaning. I would like to be addressed as Fr. Simon. (Norbert Simon from Hoven thought it was practically a miracle that a Simon could be a priest!)

I am really looking forward to being with all of you for many years to come and developing fraternal and familial relationships with you in Christ. I told the Chuck Kula family when I had a graveside burial service for him last Saturday, that if this does not work out to live in Gettysburg, I will move to Agar (neutral ground between Gettysburg and Onida)!

We continue to commence with the meet'n and greet'n and accept'n each other as we are for God has preordained that we come together to help one another to become more like Him for His greater glory!

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Simon
