SUMMER YFF AND YOUTH NIGHTS

Thank you to Olivia Mikkelsen, Neva Mikkelsen, and Reagan Brown for leading Summer YFF (formerly VBS) this past week! Children 3 years old to 5th grade attended. A big thanks to all involved with Youth Nights, too, for students going into 6th grade through 12th grade! Thank you Altar Society and Knights of Columbu for your support too! It was a great week!

SATURDAY 6:30 PM & 8:15 PM SUMMER RIVER MASS

River Mass is offered this summer on Saturdays at 8:15 pm at West Whitlock Resort across from the bait shop. Due to time restrictions, the 6:30 pm Mass must start on time and end by 7:15 pm. I need consistent and timely cooperation from volunteers. Ushers need to take up the collection, bring up the offering and place it at the foot of the Altar as I continue on with Mass. I need volunteers to help return the collection and Mass appointments to the appropriate sacristies after Mass. The River Mass needs to be setup for me and ready to go to the extent possible. If all I have to do for both Masses is to review the take down and setup and make minor adjustments, this accommodation of adding the River Mass is workable.

ONE SUNDAY MASS IN ABERDEEN THIS SUNDAY!

This event 8:30 am - 1:00 pm with Bishop Donald DeGrood will be in Aberdeen at the NSU Barnett Center. All are welcome!

DIVINE INTERVENTION

Emma Schlacter, daughter of Mike & Julene, reacts to winning after anchoring the Class B girls 1600 meter relay May 28th at the State Track and Field Meet in Sioux Falls. [Photo & caption by John Davis, SD SportScene.] Emma's teammates were Kirstie Lake, Rayel Persoon, and Dannika Kaup. Emma was quoted as saying, "We trust God. God is the only reason we won today. He's the only reason we got here. He gets us through it." Word was received that many fans and officials noticed the faith of the Potter County girls as they were the only team that huddled together to pray before every race. We are proud of the faith you displayed and congratulate you on your accomplishments!

"If elected, I promise to play golf and leave you alone for four years!"
