OPPORTUNITY TO SERVE!

Are you wondering what you could do to help keep our church the beautiful, sacred space that it is? Want to do something that's flexible, or would you prefer a more scheduled activity? Rose Ann Nagel is looking for some help with the cleaning position, especially when something unexpected happens and she isn't able to do the cleaning herself. Ideally, she would like a list of people to contact who could fill in as needed. If you prefer a regularly scheduled job, you could choose a particular weekly (like cleaning door windows, one bathroom, hall tables) or monthly task (like the choir loft, south entry). Please consider serving our church and contact Rose Ann! Thanks!

A story President Reagan told on the campaign trail

An American and a Russian were having dinner in a Moscow restaurant. The American said: "We have a democracy in America. I can go to the White House in Washington, enter the President's oval office, pound my fist on his desk, and say: 'I don't like the way President Reagan is running the country!'" The Russian replied: "I can do that! I can go to the Kremlin, enter Premier Khrushchev's office, pound my fist on his desk, and say: 'I don't like the way President Reagan is running the country!'"
