October 15, 2023 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Father Simon Sez

In this Sunday's gospel proclamation (Matthew 22:1-14), Jesus teaches us about the kingdom of heaven by telling a parable of a king who gave a wedding feast for his son. The invited guests refused to come, with some of them killing the king's servants, even after the second invitation! He sent more servants out to the main roads to invite all people, the bad and good alike. The king came to meet the guests and saw a man there not dressed in a wedding garment. He asked him, "My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment?" The man was reduced to silence; so, the king had his attendants cast him out into the darkness where there will be "wailing and grinding of teeth."

God invites all people, the bad and good alike, to his heavenly banquet, but that does not mean that anyone can come as they are. Many people think the kingdom of heaven is a "come as you are" party, coming on their own terms instead of God's terms. No, we all must be wearing a wedding garment, a white robe similar to those worn by the great multitude from every nation, tribe, people, and tongue that John saw standing before the throne and before the Lamb. One of the elders told John, "These are they who have come out of the great tribulation; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb" (Revelation 7:9-14).

God invites all people to come to the banquet of heaven, but few are chosen. We do not know with absolute certitude if we will be chosen until God judges us each individually after our own individual death. We can know with moral certitude if we are prepared for this judgment by wearing the wedding garment and keeping it white by the grace of God. God purifies us in Baptism and gives us the white wedding garment to wear through the tribulation of our lives by the grace of the sacraments. If we seek a holiness of life and die in the state of grace, we will be able to join the chorus in heaven rejoicing as mentioned in the first reading (Isaiah 25:10), "Behold our God, to whom we looked to save us! This is the Lord for whom we looked; let us rejoice and be glad that he has saved us!"

Saint Joseph School News

ST. JOSEPH SCHOOL (605) 224-7185
StJosephSchool@k12.sd.us www.sjspierre.org
Principal, Becky Walsh Secretary, Clare Charlson

The favorite part of my day is standing outside in the morning greeting the students and families coming into school. I feel a connection with the parents and students as well as the parishioners pulling into Mass.

Not only am I out greeting the students; the teachers are at their door welcoming them in as they come. It is amazing how a few minutes of human interaction can set up a person's whole day. The smile that stays with you and warms your heart. The hug given to someone that has forgotten their backpack or had a rough morning.

This small moment can make a difference that will hopefully stay with them the rest of the day. What are the students learning from these greetings? They are learning that they are loved, and we put their well-being first. They learn that they can make a difference too. Their smile can make someone's day go from dreary to bright. This small act of kindness benefits the giver and the one receiving. What a blessing!

One of our wonderful teachers has been recognized for her gifts in the classroom by receiving the Amazing Teacher of the Month. The nomination read, "Mrs. Rounds teaches 1st grade at St. Joseph Catholic School. My daughter is in her class. We are new to the school this year and she has opened her heart to us. She is incredibly kind, patient, and knowledgeable. On top of those great qualities, she is also very professional and qualified. She makes learning fun. She teaches the kids to be kind to others and to themselves. She is my daughter's favorite teacher, and we are excited for this school year." Congratulations, Mary Ellen Rounds!

It is never too late to join our family at St. Joseph School! Click on the QR code to learn more about St. Joseph School.

SOUTH DAKOTA'S EXTREME ABORTION AMENDMENT

In his apostolic exhortation Evangelii Gaudium, Pope Francis warns us about political efforts that threaten the lives of preborn children: “Among the vulnerable for whom the Church wishes to care with particular love and concern are unborn children, the most defenseless and innocent among us. Nowadays efforts are made to deny them their human dignity and to do with them whatever one pleases, taking their lives and passing laws preventing anyone from standing in the way of this.” (Par. 213) We have a responsibility, as a community that cherishes all human life, to become informed on this proposal that threatens the lives of South Dakota’s preborn children, and to educate our fellow citizens. Stay tuned for further information about the abortion amendment.
