December 10, 2023 2nd Sunday of Advent

Getting' Real with the Deacon

Last weekend, Gidget and I were at Broomtree attending a retreat for Deacons and their wives. It was a blessing to be with other couples and to share friendship with them. As part of the retreat, we meditated on some of the more than 300 questions Jesus asks in the Bible.

One question we contemplated is from the beginning of the Gospel of John where Jesus asks Andrew and John, “What are you looking for?” That question remains throughout John’s Gospel and also throughout our lives. The nagging, restless question persists: “What are we looking for?”

If Jesus asked you what you were looking for, how would you respond? Let’s start with the Mass. What are we looking for in the Mass? Are we just fulfilling an obligation? Maybe we go to church out of routine, hardly ever considering why we’re showing up at Mass each Sunday. Many people say they don’t “get anything” out of Mass. Bishop Fulton J. Sheen used to say that’s because they didn’t put anything into it! Bishop Sheen always encouraged people to put love into their worship.

We all share the mission to bring people to Jesus. The difficulty can be bringing people to Jesus if we don’t know where to find Him ourselves. When we value Jesus’s presence in the Eucharist, then others may also desire the Eucharist’s and its many graces.

A main reason for going to Mass is to share in Jesus’ Sacrifice at the altar (Eucharist) and to worship the Lord. Mass is where we first encounter Jesus for Who He is: all good and all worthy of all our love. We also seek His mercy for our sins. We express that sorrow knowing that in the Mass God bestows His grace of mercy upon us. Another reason for attending Mass is to give thanks to God for His many blessings.

One of the greatest saints was St. Bernard of Clairvaux. He used to convert so many to the religious life that a saying about him developed, “When Bernard came around to preach, the mothers hid their sons, the girlfriends hid their boyfriends, and the wives hid their husbands.”

Let’s seek to share our passion for the Mass and for the Church like St. Bernard of Clairvaux. Take a moment this week to contemplate,

“What are you looking for?”

“May we be in this world a ray of that light which shone forth from Bethlehem, bringing joy and peace to the hearts of all men and women.” -Pope Francis

We are celebrating the second Sunday of Advent. We light the second purple candle of peace on our Advent wreath. Do you ever wonder how the tradition of the Advent wreath came to be and what was its meaning?

The Advent wreath has been around for centuries. It is a circle because it symbolizes God’s never ending love for us. As the light of the world, Jesus’ love is infinite. This never ending love is also symbolized by the evergreen trees used to encircle the wreath. They remain green as God’s love remains forever. There are also the four candles. Each one represents what to anticipate for that week. The first Sunday is Hope, the beginning of a new liturgical year. The second Sunday is peace, symbolizing the peace we will be given with the birth of Jesus. The third Sunday is joy, as we anticipate the birth of Jesus. The fourth Sunday is love, Jesus is nearly here!

When your family lights a candle each Sunday, it is nice to do so with a prayer. Here is a prayer from Fr. Henri J.M. Nouwen that you could use.

Lord Jesus, Master of both light and darkness, send your Holy Spirit upon our preparation for Christmas.

We who have so much to do seek quiet spaces to hear Your voice each day.

We who are anxious over many things look forward to your coming among us.

We who are blessed in so many ways long for the complete joy of Your Kingdom.

We whose hearts are heavy seek the joy of Your presence.

We are Your people, walking in darkness yet seeking the light. To You, we say, “Come, Lord Jesus!”

It is never too late to join our family at St. Joseph School! We are currently looking for a qualified teacher. Scan the QR code to learn more about St. Joseph School. If you feel called or you know someone that you feel would be a perfect fit, please email Becky Walsh at becky.walsh@k12.sd.us.
