Father Simon 'Sez

Today, the Church celebrates Gaudete Sunday, the Sunday of Joy, because “The Lord- himself is near” (Phil 4:5). The Lord is near for people who convert from the ways of this world and are reconciled to him who is our Joy. Last Sunday, the Church through the proclamation of John the Baptist called us to conversion. As we progress in our conversion to the Lord, we will increase in deeper, abiding spiritual joy.

John preached a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sin. Then, the multitude came out to be baptized. He said to them, “Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bear fruits that befit repentance” (Lk 3:7-8). The people asked him, “What then shall we do?”

Conversion to the Lord is not just recognizing our sin and asking for forgiveness. Our repentance must bear fruit. Our conversion is not effective in bringing us closer to our Lord if we do not act as faithful disciples of Christ. If we are lacking joy in our lives, then we should look at making changes in our lives.

What changes? In the gospel proclamation, John the Baptist tells people who have extra clothing and food to give to those who have none. He tells the tax collectors to be honest and tells the soldiers to provide humble service and to be content with their pay. In the second reading (Phil 4:4-7), Paul tells everyone to be unselfish and to dismiss all anxiety. We are to present our needs to God in prayer and in petitions full of gratitude. Paul says, if we do these things, God’s own peace will stand guard over our hearts and minds.

Yes, it is possible for us to repent, to make changes, and to be people of joy. The Lord himself makes it possible by baptizing us in the Holy Spirit and in fire! This is the good news that we hear John the Baptist preach to the people in our gospel proclamation! We rejoice that the Lord is near to convert our hearts and minds to him who is our Joy! With St. Paul (Phil 4:4) we proclaim, “Rejoice in the Lord always! I say it again. Rejoice!”

It is never too late to join in the season of Advent. Many families like to do devotionals during Advent. One possible devotional would be the tradition of the Jesse Tree.

The Jesse Tree may be new to you. It is a tradition that introduces us to all the ancestors that came before Jesus. His ancestors are waiting for His birth, just as we are! Through the Jesse Tree your family can learn about Jesus' lineage and all the things they did, starting with Adam to Jesus, Himself.

You do not need much to pray this devotional. You would just need a Bible, any type of tree, from a drawing to a real one, and a Catholic site or resource that will provide you with the Bible verses, symbols, and ancestors.

Each day, you would learn about another member of Jesus' family. You will read a story and hang a symbol of the family member on the tree. It is a wonderful chance to pray as a family and learn more about your faith.

Sometimes the Bible verses may be long or at times you may think, I am not going to be able to memorize all these people. That is not something you need to worry about. The point is to learn about God, so we are ready to welcome His greatest gift, His Son!

It is never too late to be part of our family at St. Joseph Catholic School! Student applications can be found if you click on the QR code. If you would like to learn more about St. Joseph School, please click on the QR code.

God bless our Catechists and students!
