Getting' Real with the Deacon

Last month we shared some Catholic Trivia. Here are the questions and answers:

- Who is considered the first Pope of the Catholic Church? (St. Peter)
- What is the largest religious order in the Catholic Church? (The Jesuits)
- What is the name of the hat worn by bishops and cardinals? (A Mitre is the tall folding cap while the small form-fitting cap is a Zucchetto)
- Who is the Patron Saint of Happy Marriages? (St. Valentine)

St. Valentine is a nice segue as we prepare to celebrate Valentines Day later this week. For many it's a day filled with heart-shaped boxes, romantic dinners, and expressions of love. But before the commercialization, before the flowers and chocolates, there was St. Valentine. Who was he, and why do we celebrate him?

While the details of St. Valentine's life are shrouded in mystery, several legends exist. Most agree that he was a priest or bishop who lived in Rome in the 3rd century AD during a time of Christian persecution. One legend is Emperor Claudius II had outlawed marriages for young soldiers, believing that single men made better fighters. Defying the emperor's decree, Valentine secretly performed marriage ceremonies for the young couples. This act of love and defiance ultimately led to his imprisonment and martyrdom.

Another legend tells of Valentine befriending his jailer's blind daughter. Through his faith and prayers, her sight was miraculously restored. On the day of his execution he wrote her a letter signed, "Your Valentine", a gesture some believe is the origin of the Valentine's Day card. While the historical accuracy of these stories is debated, the core message remains: Valentine was a man of love, courage, and faith. He showed compassion and kindness to those in need, even in the face of his own suffering. On this Valentine's Day, consider these ways to honor St. Valentine:

- Reflect on the true meaning of love: Beyond romantic love, consider the love we are called to show to everyone, as Christ loved us.
- Perform a selfless act of love: Reach out to some one in need, offer a helping hand, or simply offer a kind word.
- Pray for those who are lonely or suffering: Remember those who may not have someone to share Valentine's Day with.
- Attend Mass and pray for the intercession of St. Valentine: Ask for his guidance in living a life of love and faith.

St. Valentine, pray for us!

And Mary said, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord; let it be to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her. ~Luke 1:38

Each Friday, we meet as an entire school to learn about a new virtue. The virtue of obedience was the virtue we practiced this week. Obedience is assenting to rightful authority without hesitation or resistance.

To practice the virtue of obedience, students perform duties faithfully and thoroughly with a joyful attitude. They do what is asked of them, such as schoolwork or household chores. They listen the first time and do not hesitate to accomplish what is asked of them.

A perfect role model for this virtue is the Virgin Mother Mary! Without hesitation, she did God's will. She is the person we should look to in the times when we feel a task or a request is too hard. We should pray for her intercession for the strength to complete the task with joy in our hearts because we know it is bringing us closer to our eternal home.

Dear Jesus,

You are God, and yet You were obedient to Mary and Joseph. Help me to do all that my parents and teachers ask of me—promptly, joyfully, and completely.

Amen.

~Disciple of Christ, Education in Virtue

Visit our site to see the students that emulate the virtues. They are living out the virtues for all to see! This is just one example of how St. Joseph Catholic School teaches to the whole body and soul of our students. We are not just educating the leaders of tomorrow, we are focused on using our faith and the Lord's teachings to make us ready to spend time with Him in Heaven.

It is never too late to join our family at St. Joseph Catholic School! Applications, along with more information, can be found if you click on the QR code.

Holy Land Olive Art

Holy Land Olive Art
will be in
St. Pius X Parish & Sacred Heart Parish
February 16th

Did you know Catholics and Christians once made up 63% of the people in the Holy Land? Now they are less than 2% of the whole population.

Holy Land Catholics are known worldwide for their Olive wood carvings. Generation after generation, families have taught their children to carve religious figures from Olive wood by hand. For two centuries Catholics have been able to support their families by selling these unique carvings to pilgrims who visit. The Archbishop of Jerusalem has blessed the Mission of selling hand carved olive wax items to Catholics worldwide.

We bring these carvings to the United States as part of this mission. Selling this holy Unique art has helped Catholics continue to make a living there.
