PASTORATE LEADERS:

Pastor Rev. J. Joseph Holzhauser

Parochial Vicar Rev. Brian Simon

Deacon Rev. Mr. Brad Palmer

Fr. Simon 'Sez

In our gospel proclamation for this Sunday, we hear Jesus' Sermon on the Plain. Jesus is contrasting blessings and woes. He is teaching his disciples how to live "the new life," following the Way versus the way of this world which is spiritual and eternal death.

Blessings and woes, like life and death, are inherent contradictions. As Irene Nowell, OSB states it, "The four blessings portray life; the four woes signify death. (The word woe in early use was a funeral lament.)" As Christian disciples, we need to recognize our contradictions in life. We need to name them, claim them, and change them by his grace. Jesus identifies the people with woes as those who find their fleeting comfort in worldly riches, who are full of themselves with false security and temporary pleasure (pride and sensuality), who are popular among the worldly with laughter, and who have others who speak well of them (vanity). To be blessed is to be poor in attachments to the things of this world, to hunger for spiritual fulfillment, to weep at the loss of God's presence in the world, and to be hated by people who hate the Son of Man.

This life of blessedness is attainable for you if you trust in Jesus Christ, are attached to him through his Church instead of to this world, and put down deep roots to the underground river of grace. When you die with Christ and remain attached to Christ, you share in the power of his resurrection, here and now, which is hidden from this world. You grow and flourish with "new life" in Christ and triumph over the ways of spiritual and eternal death.

The prophet Jeremiah says in the first reading, "Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord, whose hope is the Lord. He is like a tree planted beside the waters that stretches out its roots to the stream: it fears not the heat when it comes; its leaves stay green; in the year of drought it shows no distress, but still bears fruit." You can and should rejoice and be glad now, no matter what drought, trials, and tribulations you are enduring, because, today's verse before the gospel says, "Your reward will be great in heaven."

Principal, Becky Walsh Secretary, Clare Charlson

To really know how our school can benefit your child and family, it is important to hear from those that have experienced it.

“St. Joseph School is like one big family, where students, teachers, and parents all support each other. The teachers are amazing, not just in the classroom but in how they care for each student, and the faith-filled environment helps our Kids of Christ grow in both knowledge and faith. Choosing SJS has been one of the best choices we’ve made for our kids.”

-Jenny Bernhard, parent of a 2nd & 4th grader

“Leo’s Catholic education is a blessing from God and is allowing him to become the best person he can be. The teacher’s and principal at St. Joseph are very kind and attentive to what is best for Leo spiritually as well academically. The staff has taken the time to make Leo feel special, loved, and needed. Leo has made great strides in his educational career. Every report card is a testament to the importance of a Catholic education with patient and caring guidance from the teachers and principal at St. Joseph School.”

-Rebecka Wallingford, parent of a 4th grader

“We had previously had our children enrolled in the public school system. We made the switch this year and we have ZERO regrets! SJS has been SO good for our children and for our family as a whole. When you’re a part of SJS you really become part of a community and family. The smaller class sizes are wonderful and the staff is great! Our child’s faith has grown a ton this year and it’s been beautiful to watch it unfold. We are thankful for this school, the only thing we would change is adding grades 6-12.”

-Marlee Bowers, parent of a 1st grader

Visit our website and Facebook page to see more about our school. St. Joseph Catholic School teaches to the whole body and soul of our students. We are not just educating the leaders of tomorrow, we are focused on using our faith and the Lord’s teachings to make us ready to spend time with Him in Heaven.

It is never too late to be part of our family at St. Joseph Catholic School! More information along with student applications can be found by clicking on the QR code.

Holy Land Olive Art will be in
St. Pius X Parish & Sacred Heart Parish
This Weekend—Feb. 16th

Did you know Catholics and Christians once made up 63% of the people in the Holy Land? Now they are less than 2% of the whole population.

Holy Land Catholics are known worldwide for their Olive wood carvings. Generation after generation, families have taught their children to carve religious figures from Olive wood by hand. For two centuries Catholics have been able to support their families by selling these unique carvings to pilgrims who visit. The Archbishop of Jerusalem has blessed the Mission of selling hand carved olive wax items to Catholics worldwide.

We bring these carvings to the United States as part of this mission. Selling this holy Unique art has helped Catholics continue to make a living there.
