Getting' Real with the Deacon

This weekend's readings tell us we have no need for fear and anxiety, for Jesus is always close, even in the noise of the world. As Christians we are called to be not of the world, but we are called to be in the world. Our call is to help people recognize the presence of Jesus and to let them know that in a stormy world Jesus can be a source of peace.

In the reading from Matthew, Jesus is not in the boat; he is in the stormy waters. It is interesting that Jesus is found outside the boat in the middle of the stormy sea, in the world. We are called to step out in faith to meet him. To have enough faith that we might be a water-walker who seeks and finds Jesus by keeping our eyes and our hearts focused on him and by recognizing Jesus in the lives of others who share our walk in their own stormy waters.

I imagine all of us can think of some remarkable water-walkers we have known. We all know simple, straight-forward, hard-working men and women, toddlers and teens, shut-in elders and shut-out homeless, perform acts that defy the limitations of the world in which they live. The dialysis patient who gets out of bed, puts on clean clothes and picks up around the house, before going for treatment. The incarcerated woman who is separated from her children, struggles with addiction, but still smiles a greeting and cares more about the struggles of others than her own. The single parent who is overworked and overwhelmed but still makes it to soccer games and school plays and checks to see that homework is done. The elderly man or woman who lives alone, whose family has forgotten them, who counts the meals on wheels volunteer as "company," but still sits at the table for all their meals. They can all be considered water walkers who seek and find Jesus in the world.

I encourage everyone to seek out a water-walker this week and to share a word of encouragement with them. When we do that, we can bring a bit of peace into their world and help them see what Jesus' love looks like.

ST. JOSEPH SCHOOL (605) 224-7185 StJosephSchool@k12.sd.us www.sjspierre.org Principal, Becky Walsh Secretary, Clare Charlson

St. Joseph School is like a family. As a family we are united in striving for the best of each member. To do that, we hire exceptional people. I would like to introduce you to some of them.

Joyce Williams has been a tried and true staff member of St. Joseph School. She will be one of our aides this year. This will be her 50th year with us!
Joyce is like the energizer bunny. She is always helping, organizing, or teaching! She graduated from Dakota State University. She enjoys watching her grandchildren grow up. She is an avid reader and traveler.

Clare Charlson is our school secretary. This will be her 4th year with us. Fun fact, Clare attended St.
Joseph School from 1st to 6th grade! Her alma mater is South Dakota State University. Clare is always there to greet people with a smiling face. Her hobbies are walking, spending time with her family and daughter, and traveling. She enjoys working with the nice, young children and loves the cohesiveness of the staff. Her favorite saint is St. Clare of Assisi.

Michele Snyder is the St. Joseph School business manager and the parish office administrator. She has been with us for 12 years. Michele is one of those people that is able to help you with anything! She graduated from SW Minnesota State University. Her hobbies are reading, walking, watching movies, and visiting with people. Her 6 children attended SJS, so over the years it has become a bit like home. Michele's favorite saint is the Blessed Mother.
