September 24, 2023 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

SEPTEMBER

Fr. Joe's Jottings

Recently there was a pastorate planning leadership team established. The members are Jacob Rausch, Dan Glodt, Bob Dahlquist, Andy Mikkelsen, Nick Wiley, Taecea Voorhees, Becky Walsh, Patrick Ludwig, Tony Mangan, Darlene Braun, Michele Snyder, Fr. Brian Simon, and Fr. Joe Holzhauser.

On September 13th they met with Fr. Scott Traynor and Mr. Thad Pals. Fr. Traynor is the director of Discipleship and Evangelism while Mr. Pals is the Chancellor for the diocese.

During the three-hour meeting, Fr. Traynor identified the priorities of the pastorate during the next 8 months. He suggested that we identify a patron saint or significant event in salvation history. He also suggested that the first decision would NOT be Mass times and locations, but that is the LAST of 13 steps. He also stated that many people will want to start there.

After establishing a name, we are then to focus on Worship followed by Discipleship and Evangelization. The third priority will be Service which will foster community. There are 10 more steps, but we begin with a name for the pastorate. I grew up in Holy Rosary parish in Agar, while some were members of Holy Spirit in Blunt, and more recently, some remember St. John the Baptist in Onaka. I remember when naming the combination of parishes in Huron, I was in favor of All Saints, but the people wanted Holy Trinity for the three parishes.

Questions to be asked about Worship will be "Where we are, where we want to go, and how do we get there?" During this time of Eucharistic Revival, it is so very important that we focus on worship because that is our Catholic identity. The follow up will be Discipleship and Evangelization or catechesis. It is time to emphasize Real Presence and Adoration because many Catholics are not as strong as they once were in their faith. Mass attendance indicates we may have lost our commitment and devotion to the Blessed Sacrament.

That is enough for now but we have a busy 8 months coming.

Principal, Becky Walsh Secretary, Clare Charlson

According to the Merriam-Webster dictionary, the definition of impressed is 'to have gained the admiration of'.

I have always thought highly of the staff at St.
Joseph School, but this week I have been impressed. I admire them and the work they do!

In my new role, I am able to provide resources, support, and guidance for my staff. I am able to drop by their rooms to help with problems, observe fun lessons, or just get to know the students. It is a good place to be.

These last few weeks, I have observed numerous ways of teaching. I have been exposed to clear direct instruction, engaging centers, new ways of organizing,
established routines, extraordinary behavior management models, and knowledgeable student collaboration. I have admiration for those that can take material and make it relevant to the students. I was impressed!
Not only are the teachers teaching to the mind of their students, they are also engaging their heart and soul.

Religion is not just a subject that is taught in the classrooms during a certain time of day, but it is lived throughout the day in the classroom, in the lunchroom, at PE, at Music, in the lunchroom, and even when they leave the building to go home.

St. Joseph School staff only has the students for a short time, but they are making a big difference! I am sure you would be impressed!

It is never too late to join our family at St. Joseph School!

Prayer for Priests

Lord God, most holy, we approach you in gratitude for your holy ordained priesthood. You have called these men to be set apart and to shepherd your people, as you shepherd your entire church. We pray for them in their daily work. Grant to them an increase in spiritual gifts and grace, so they may be prepared for the tasks at hand. Lead them not into temptation and protect them from the grasp of the evil one. It is through the sacraments they confer that we encounter the divine in a real and profound way. May your church never lose sight of these, your special sons, and may we, the body of Christ, never fail to cherish the gift of their lives, which they have freely given to you and your holy church. We ask this in the name of Jesus, your Son. Amen.
