October 29, 2023 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Fr. Joe's Jottings

This week there will be young people in costumes searching for morsels of sugar, namely candy, in the tradition called Halloween. It is exciting to watch the creativity some families possess. In the life of the church the next day is more important by the fact that it is All Saints Day. It is hoped that we utilize this opportunity to catechize our children that gathering "treats" is good but reflecting on the communion of Saints leads to salvation. November 1 is a Holy Day of Obligation so as families we attend Mass.

On November 2nd, the church asks us to pray for all the souls of those who have died. A long tradition of the church is the souls of those not canonized are in purgatory. Purgatory is the state of existence where we are not in heaven but awaiting the "purification" of the soul so that we are worthy to enter the Kingdom. Many good people die without the last rites or without confessing all their sins. God forgives but we realize that we need to be in a state of "grace" to enter heaven so it is the teaching that Purgatory is the state of existence where the grace is attained through the prayers of so many people.

At each of the parishes we will have a book with the list of names of those who have died in the last year so that we can pray for their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed. Everyone can add to the list of names throughout the month of November. Perhaps one may want to walk through a cemetery and pray over the remains while looking at the monument with the names. Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light show on them as they rest in peace.

Saint Joseph School News

ST. JOSEPH SCHOOL

(605) 224-7185

StJosephSchool@k12.sd.us www.sjspierre.org

Principal, Becky Walsh Secretary, Clare Charlson

St. Joseph Catholic School had the great fortune of being visited by the Pro Ecclesia Sancta Sisters. The mission of the PES Sisters is to promote a vocation of holiness to all they meet. They brought a wealth of knowledge to share with many of the classes and the staff.

Students learned about the Sacred Heart of Jesus and how God wants to use each one of us to bring holiness into the world. The students were engaged and ready to learn through songs and activities. They had a hunger to hear what the Sisters had to say. The Sisters saw themselves as vessels to spread holiness.

As a staff, we were provided with ways to bring the Word of God into our lives and integrated into every subject that we teach. He is our treasure.

Matthew 6:19-21 19 [a] “Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and decay destroy, and thieves break in and steal. 20 But store up treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor decay destroys, nor thieves break in and steal. 21 For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.

We all know how important it is to have a relationship with God. Their visit was a beautiful reminder to continue to seek out God through prayer and to put Him in the center of all we do!

It is never too late to join our family at St. Joseph School! We are currently looking for a qualified teacher. Please click on the QR code to learn more about St. Joseph School or email Becky Walsh at becky.walsh@k12.sd.us.

Eternal rest grant unto

AMY CORDELL,

& HANK KOSTERS

and let Perpetual Light shine upon them.

May they and all the faithfully departed

through the mercy of God,

rest in Peace. Amen.
