March 10, 2024 4th Sunday of Lent

Getting' Real with the Deacon

Being aware of traditions and customs assists us in celebrating the beauty of our faith. I must admit I don't mind wearing pink. The Fourth Sunday of Lent is Laetare Sunday where the Church expresses hope and joy in the midst of our Lenten penance and the Priest (and Deacon) can wear rose-colored vestments. Some might call it pink, but this change in color indicates a glimpse of the joy that awaits us at Easter.

Laetare Sunday marks the half-way point of the Lenten season and is considered a day of relaxation from normal Lenten abstinence. It is part of our human nature that we struggle with being penitent for an extended period. The Church knows our human nature, so she offers us this break which is brightened by a shaft of light from the glorious season we are preparing for. Signs of joy are allowed on Laetare Sunday to inspire us to continue our Lenten commitments to prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

The Fourth Sunday of Lent was also previously observed as Mothering Sunday, where families visited the church where they were baptized. In the 16th century, Christians from the UK and Ireland would return to their "mother church" which could be the local parish church or the closest cathedral, which was viewed as the mother church of all parishes in a diocese. Those who practiced this custom were said to have gone "a-mothering," and it became known as "Mothering Sunday." Once the tradition became a day for family reunion with a reference to mothers in the name, it naturally evolved to include all mothers within the celebration. For children, the walk back home became a time to pick flowers for mom, and this would grow to the tradition of giving gifts to mothers. And so this tradition points to Mothering Sunday as the precursor to Mother's Day.

Take advantage of the richness of our Catholic traditions this year. Consider surprising the mother in your life with roses on the dinner table or plant a rose bush at home or for a friend; share stories of where family members were baptized; or take a drive to "your mother church".

"There's something about it that makes sense, Lent. You give something up, and everything's more joyful." – Elaine Stritch

“Therefore, as God’s chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience.” Colossians 3:12

During this season of Lent, the St. Joseph Catholic School students are learning about the virtues of the Catholic Church, particularly the virtue of kindness. Kindness is one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit. It is when someone is generous, friendly, and considerate of others.

Kindness can bring about conversion. It can bring those that have strayed from God back. Kindness is showing Jesus to the world. People are attracted to kindness and then show kindness themselves. The Bible refers to kindness when talking about the Golden Rule, Corporal Works of Mercy, and in the story of the Good Samaritan.

It is important to have and show kindness at school. Students spend the majority of their days working hard learning at school. There can be times of frustration or confusion when learning, and to have your peers being kind to you makes a huge difference! It is as important for the staff. There are highs and lows throughout the day, and it always helps to build morale to show kindness.

At St. Joseph Catholic School, we have started a program that promotes kindness. Throughout the day, students and staff can be caught being kind by other students or staff members. If they are caught, they will receive a sticker that they can wear the following day. It is amazing to see the joy of a child or staff member when they receive their sticker. Not only do they feel appreciated and seen by others, but they also feel closer to Christ and how he treated others.

Come to our school to feel the kindness!! We offer tours given by our students! It is never too late to join our family at St. Joseph School! Applications can be found if you click on the QR code.

We are currently looking for a qualified teacher. If you feel called or you know someone else that you feel would be a perfect fit, please click on the QR code to learn more about St. Joseph School or email becky.walsh@k12.sd.us.
