March 17, 2024 5th Sunday of Lent

Father Simon Sez

During Holy Week we commemorate the culminating point in salvation history and in Jesus' public ministry: 1) His triumphant entrance into Jerusalem, 2) His offering of himself as the Suffering Servant at the Last Supper, 3) His crucifixion and death, and 4) His resurrection. Through these events of the paschal mystery, Jesus has won salvation for us. When we celebrate these events, we are celebrating our own salvation! This celebration is not only a remembering of these historic events, but also a liturgical celebration using sacraments which make us "present" in the saving mysteries of our faith, so that we can receive the mercy and grace we need for our salvation.

The liturgy uses narration to tell help us call to mind the history ("his story") of the mystery and uses symbols to give us physical signs of spiritual realities through which we receive saving grace. We need to take advantage of what the liturgy provides in order to better participate in the re-presentation of these saving events.

On Palm Sunday we use palm branches which were taken from the "kingly" tree and used in Jesus' time as a symbol of royalty and military victory. The red cope and chasuble are the color of "the faithful witness (martyr) and firstborn from the dead."

On Holy Thursday we celebrate the institution of the Eucharist and Holy Orders. The priest washes feet in imitation of Jesus to show Jesus through His priests has come to serve others. The Last Supper is celebrated with the Eucharistic Prayer and communion. The Blessed Sacrament is then removed in procession, and the sanctuary is stripped to represent Jesus leaving and going into the darkness of the Mount of Olives.

On Good Friday we recall the Passion and venerate the Cross which is the instrument of Jesus' death and our salvation. We receive communion and end in silence to remind us of Jesus' death.

Easter Vigil is a burst of symbols and sacraments of initiation. It starts in darkness and the light breaks through when we bless the fire and process with the Light of Christ. Our RCIA candidates are received into the Roman Catholic Church and confirmed. The Liturgy of the Eucharist gives us Jesus in a sacramental way so that we may participate in his death and share in his resurrection.

Thus, the Church provides us opportunities to celebrate our salvation and provides the means through which God does his saving work in us. May we pray these liturgies and live these liturgies for our salvation and the salvation of the whole world.

On the Lighter Side—5th Sunday of Lent

"Why is Lent the best time of year to run a marathon?"

"Because that's when you fast!"

The three tenants of Lent are: praying, fasting, and giving alms. "Fasting" actually refers to abstaining from food or another act with a prayerful intention.

Doing the Stations of the Cross is powerful! The students are exposed to what Jesus went through and how it can relate to our lives even today. The Way of the Cross is the heart of our Christian story.

At SJS, we have been praying the Stations of the Cross together each Friday during Lent. Our students pray them with the school and community members to be closer to Christ.

Stations of the Cross can also be prayed in other ways. It is wonderful to go to a Living Stations of the Cross, where you can watch the Stations unfold as if you are really present. People find a real connection when it is offered visually. If a Living Stations of the Cross is not offered, there are many videos that offer a wonderful rendition of the Stations of the Cross.

Many times, we feel that we need to pray all the Stations of the Cross in one sitting, but that is not true. They can be prayed one by one each day. The classroom or family can focus on one Station each day to really delve into its meaning. Sometimes they can seem overwhelming. It would really help us understand them better if we could sit and focus on one at a time.

Artwork can also add to the understanding of each Station. Drawing it yourself or seeing it through a picture or carving, allows the viewer to imagine what Jesus was going through. The beautiful artwork of Jesus’ Passion that adorns the church is a perfect example of how art helps capture our attention.

The school will be praying the Stations of the Cross on Wednesday, March 20th at 8:30am in the church following morning mass. Feel free to come pray with us!

We would love you to visit our school! We offer tours given by our students! It is never too late to join our family at St. Joseph School! Applications can be found if you click on the QR code.

We are currently looking for a qualified teacher. If you feel called or you know someone else that you feel would be a perfect fit, please click on the QR code to learn more about St. Joseph School or email Becky at becky.walsh@k12.sd.us.
