Fr. Simon
Sez

A young man without faith, religion, or spirituality in one of my former parishes asked me, “Why do Catholics call you father?” He was civilly married to a Catholic young lady. They were not married in the Church and had two little daughters who were not baptized. I told him, “Because your daughters have bodies and souls, they need a biological father and a spiritual father. You are their biological father. I need to be their spiritual father.”

This Father’s Day we honor our fathers, living and deceased. More importantly, we honor God our Father who gave us life through our earthly fathers and may have been able to give us a glimpse of eternal life through them. God the Father is the one who created us and sent his Son to redeem us through whom we receive the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of biological life and eternal life. God the Father does this out of love for us. He created us in his image and likeness and redeemed us by making us his sons and daughters by grafting us onto the vine, the Mystical Body of Christ, the Church with the Son of God, Jesus Christ as the Head. By our created nature, we are, and will always be, in the image and likeness of God our Father and, by our baptized nature, we will always belong to Christ our Lord and Savior. There is nothing we can do to change these realities.

The problem is, of course, sin. We can choose to deny God by rejecting him with one unrepented mortal sin, but he cannot deny himself (See 2 Timothy 2:13). Because of the effects of original sin and God’s mercy, he wants us to return to him like the prodigal son, forgive us of sin, and put on a divine homecoming feast in heaven for us for all eternity.

Also, by God’s design, we can come to realize this love of God the Father for us through our earthly fathers. This should happen but is never sufficient. The good news, according to Neal Lozano, is that we can catch up. His main objective was to write a book on God the Father to help people come to this realization and exceed it. Before he could write this book, Abba’s Heart: Finding Our Way Back to the Father’s Delight, which he eventually did, he knew he had to write a book on deliverance to prepare people for this book. His first book, Unbound: A Practical Guide to Deliverance, became a national bestseller. I was trained in his method of deliverance ministry. These books with ministry and study guides can be found at store.heartofthefather.com.

After being able to experience some freedom in Christ, we are open to receive God the Father’s blessing and affirmation of our identity, purpose and destiny. We are then ready to realize one of the promises of our daily prayer taught to us by Jesus Christ himself: “Our Father...Give us this day, our daily bread.”

Thanks be to God, I had the honor of baptizing those two daughters of that biological father, because he was willing to let me be his daughters’ spiritual father.

Happy Father’s Day!

Saint Joseph School News

ST. JOSEPH SCHOOL (605) 224-7185
Becky.Walsh@k12.sd.us www.sjspierre.org
Principal, Becky Walsh Secretary, Clare Charlson

Father's are awesome! There have been so many fantastic examples of fathers in our church history. There are three saints who come to mind that really embody what it means to be a father.

St. Joseph is of course the first one that comes to mind. As the earthly father of Jesus, he is everyone's goal. From all accounts, he was a quiet, hardworking man, who provided love and support to both Mary and Jesus. Raising the Son of God seems quite daunting, but he did it with a gentle grace. His influence mattered.

St. Isidore the farmer was another great role model of a father. He was a hard working farmer, who put his faith as a priority. St. Isidore used his time during work to talk with God. He also taught his children the importance of serving the poor and needy.

St. Thomas More was a politician who stood up for his faith. He was a father of 4 and strived to educate them in their faith as much as their academics. St. Thomas was a terrific role model to his children. His integrity was not swayed by what was popular. He stuck to his beliefs unwaveringly.

These men are wonderful role models to fathers. Although we do not have to look very far to see fathers that are gentle, committed, and have integrity. Our own fathers have sacrificed for us. They have made it a priority for us to learn about our Catholic faith. We are lucky to have them!

It is never too late to be part of our family at St. Joseph Catholic School! Student applications can be found if you click on the QR code. If you would like to learn more about St. Joseph School, please click on the QR code.

Greeters & Gift Bearer sign-up at Ss. Peter & Paul

A Sign-Up Genius schedule has been set up through July for families to sign up to be greeters and gift-bearers. Please prayerfully consider signing up— Thank you!

- * What time do I need to be there to greet?
15 minutes before Mass starts
- * Where should I sit at Mass?
A reserved sign will be set out for you to put on the pew where you will like to sit.
- * When will I bring up the water, wine & ciborium (offertory gifts)?

When the servers bring the chalice over to Father, go to the back of the church to get the gifts.

- * If I greet, do I also bring up the offertory gifts? Yes

Your prayers and assistance have been greatly appreciated this year!

Have a blessed Summer!

Thank you! The Pierre Committee for the Annual Bishop's Fishing Tournament thanks everyone in the Holy Rosary Pastorate who participated some way in the fishing tournament this year. By purchasing raffle tickets, making a cash donation or sponsorship, donating, or purchasing items for raffle baskets and silent auctions, attending & volunteering for the event at the river, or praying for our seminarians – You made the day a success!

This year brought the highest number of attendees to the Pierre location of the tournament to enjoy a day for fishing, praying with the Bishop, socializing, and enjoying a prime rib dinner. We welcomed new participation by the West River Diocese to spread the effort to fund seminarian education across the entire state. We ask that you continue to pray for seminarian formation which is so vital to the future of our faith. It was inspiring to see so many attendees work together in the face of an impending rainstorm to move tables and chairs and assist in taking down the tent. We thank you all for taking that extra time and effort so that job could be done quickly and safely for all. We are fortunate to be part of a pastorate that has so many faithful, caring, and generous members. We appreciate you all so much. We hope to see you next year!
